Hope this report is not too late yet to be delivered. I was so busy observing the Israeli withdrawal from Gaza. At the same time, I have a lot of things to do: looking for a new apartment, residency in the south of France, exhibition in Belgium, etc.. For now from my residency place (a very small village in the south of France), I would like to send you this image: a house where travelers and passers-by can stay for a short moment. The other photos are taken in an abandoned place in which I tried to reveal the memory of the place by placing objects or putting them in a special situation...

Best,
Taysir
